Photos: Students Complete Life Skills Program

December 19, 2013 | 0 Comments

Yesterday [Dec 18] CADA, along with prevention partners, DNDC and PRIDE, celebrated as a group of Berkeley Institute students completed the Life Skills Program. Shadow Minister Michael Weeks handed out certificates to the 22 students at a special ceremony.

CADA spokesperson Anthony Santucci stated "Life Skills Training [LST] is a research-validated substance abuse prevention program, proven to reduce the risks of alcohol, tobacco, drug abuse and violence by targeting the major social and psychological factors that promote the initiation of substance use and other risky behaviors.

"This comprehensive and exciting program provides adolescents and young teens with the confidence and skills necessary to successfully handle challenging situations."
